SNELL & WILMER ATTORNEY RACHEL M. SASS APPOINTED TO CASA DE LA LUZ FOUNDATION BOARD OF DIRECTORS

TUCSON (May 30, 2019) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce the Casa de la Luz Foundation appointed Tucson associate Rachel M. Sass to the board of directors.

The Tucson-based nonprofit's vision is to empower hospice patients and their loved ones to transform the end of life experience into the final act of living well. Through their work, Casa de la Luz supports families, strengthens quality end of life care and inspires the community to have those difficult conversations with their loved ones.

"What impressed me most about the Foundation is how they empower people to take control of their end of life experience," Sass said. "As an estate planning attorney, I want to help my clients preserve their legacy, so the Foundation is such a perfect match for this vision."

Rachel M. Sass

Sass, whose three-year appointment began in April, concentrates her practice in estate and tax planning, probate and trust administration, and business law. She helps individuals develop estate plans in a wide variety of circumstances, from simple plans to complex plans for high net worth individuals and families. She also helps business owners develop succession plans.

Prior to becoming an attorney, Sass worked as a Care Coordinator at an in-home care agency, which was an experience that made her aware of end of life care and the emotional difficulty that comes with that process, she said.
