DANIEL ACKERMAN JOINS SNELL & WILMER'S DENVER OFFICE AS COUNSEL

DENVER (September 12, 2019) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Daniel Ackerman has joined the firm's Denver office as Counsel in the Intellectual Property group.

Ackerman comes from Brownstein Hyatt Farber & Schreck LLP with extensive experience in intellectual property law with an emphasis on trademark portfolio management. He counsels clients from startups to Fortune 100 companies in domestic and international brand development, management, policing, and enforcement strategies. Ackerman's practice focuses on supporting client businesses and brands in intellectual property areas such as name clearance and screening, prosecution and enforcement, licensing, transactional, copyright, endorsement, advertising, marketing and promotion. He also has extensive experience representing clients in dispute matters, whether before the United States Patent and Trademark Office, state and federal court systems, or disputes stemming from the Internet.

Daniel I. Ackerman

"By adding Dan to our team, we are able to further expand our intellectual property capabilities," said Denver managing partner Curt Reimann. "He is a talented, strategic attorney with experience working with clients in a variety of industries. He will make a great addition to our team."

Ackerman is a member of the International Trademark Association and is a founder of the Veterans Beer Alliance. He received his J.D. from the University of Denver Sturm College of Law and his B.A. in Political Science from Middlebury College in Vermont.
