SANDRA JONAS JOINS SNELL & WILMER IN TUCSON OFFICE

TUCSON (September 23, 2019) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Sandra Jonas has joined the Tucson office as an associate in the firm's Commercial Litigation practice group.

Jonas's practice includes litigating complex business disputes, including breaches of contract and fiduciary duty, embezzlement and fraud. Jonas also has experience litigating matters arising under FLSA, ADA, ADEA, Title VII and the NLRA. She represents clients in trade secret and restrictive covenant disputes. Jonas conducts internal audits to identify and resolve wage and hour issues. She is experienced in managing all aspects of litigation and has litigated in federal, state and administrative courts.

Sandra Jonas

Prior to joining Snell & Wilmer, Jonas served as an associate at Foley & Lardner (formerly Gardere Wynne Sewell). She also served as an intern at the Travis County District Attorney's Office and the Tucson City Attorney's Office.

Jonas graduated from Thomson Rivers University in Canada with a B.M. in Music. She received a Master of Applied Linguistics from University of Leicester in the United Kingdom and a J.D. from the University of Texas.
