PARTNER ELIZABETH WYLIE JOINS THE WOMEN'S FOUNDATION OF COLORADO BOARD OF TRUSTEES

DENVER (May 11, 2020) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Denver partner Elizabeth Wylie recently joined The Women's Foundation of Colorado (WFCO) board of trustees. WFCO is a community foundation creating more pathways to economic security for Colorado women. The organization's mission is to catalyze community to advance and accelerate economic opportunities for Colorado women and their families through research, public policy advocacy, grantmaking and philanthropy.

The WFCO board of trustees is a diverse group of individuals committed to achieving gender equity. The trustees leverage their strengths, talents, networks and resources to further the mission of WFCO, and they diligently use the power of community, philanthropy and impact to create a future where women and girls of every background and identity can prosper.

“As co-chair of WFCO's Power of Extended Philanthropy (PEP) committee, I have seen firsthand the incredible work being done by the dedicated staff and board of trustees,” said Wylie. “I am excited to contribute to the efforts and impact of WFCO in a new capacity.”

Wylie rounds out a board of 26 individuals who work in partnership with WFCO president and CEO Lauren Y. Casteel to set WFCO's goals and priorities, determine policy and grantmaking, raise funds and manage the foundation's assets.

Wylie is a trial attorney with more than 25 years of experience focusing on business and employment litigation involving commercial disputes and employment matters. She has represented clients across multiple industries, including food service, health care, construction, real estate, and manufacturing, and at all stages of litigation, including administrative proceedings and appeals, seeking or defending a temporary restraining order and/or preliminary injunction, and trial or arbitration.
