ORANGE COUNTY (September 30, 2022) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that the Orange County office has been named an honoree of The Civic 50 Orange County by OneOC and Points of Light. This award recognizes community-minded companies in Orange County determined by an independently administered and scored survey. The Civic 50 Orange County initiative provides a standard for superior corporate citizenship, and showcases how companies can use their time, skills, and resources to drive social impact in their company and communities. The Civic 50 Orange County honorees were officially recognized at The Civic 50 Orange County Reception on September 29, 2022, in Anaheim, California.

“Snell & Wilmer is committed to serving the local community through the work of attorneys and staff on pro bono matters as well as with respect to support of local non-profit organizations,” said partner Michele Assayag, who serves as chair of the Community Involvement Committee of Snell & Wilmer’s Orange County office. “We share a strong commitment to provide support to those who may require assistance and to, in the process, make a difference. We look forward to continuing our efforts to give back.”

OneOC is an Orange County based nonprofit organization with the mission of accelerating nonprofit success. It is committed to making nonprofits in Orange County as efficient and effective as they are passionate about their missions. Additionally, OneOC serves as a Management Services Organization, providing solutions and support services to nonprofits and companies, helping them to make greater impact and engage with the community. It proudly builds bridges between the public and private sectors to make Orange County a better place for all.

Points of Light is a global nonprofit organization that inspires, equips, and mobilizes millions of people to take action that changes the world. It envisions a world in which every individual discovers the power to make a difference, creating healthy communities in vibrant, participatory societies. Through affiliates in 250 cities across 38 countries, and in partnership with thousands of nonprofits and corporations, Points of Light engages 5 million volunteers in 20 million hours of service each year.
