SNELL & WILMER PARTNER HEIDI MCNEIL STAUDENMAIER SELECTED FOR INCLUSION IN WHO'S WHO LEGAL: SPORTS & GAMING 2022

PHOENIX (October 31, 2022) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Phoenix partner Heidi McNeil Staudenmaier was selected for inclusion in Who's Who Legal: Sports & Gaming 2022.

Since 1996, Who's Who Legal has identified the foremost legal practitioners in multiple areas of business law. In total, their website features over 24,000 of the world's leading private practice lawyers from over 150 national jurisdictions. They pride themselves on the integrity and authority of their findings, and it is impossible to buy entry into the publication. Their services are designed to reduce the short-term costs incurred in finding a lawyer and minimize the transactional expense and risk of receiving poor counsel. They act as a reference source for companies seeking to corroborate the reputations of expert lawyers recommended by another party.

Heidi McNeil
Staudenmaier

McNeil Staudenmaier is nationally recognized in the areas of Native American Law, Gaming Law and Business Litigation. She represents tribes, tribal entities and businesses who engage in commercial transactions in Indian Country, including gaming licensing, compacting, economic development, and governmental matters. She was the 2019 recipient of the American Bar Association's prestigious Jean Allard Glass Cutter Award, which is presented annually to a woman who has cut through barriers to attain high accomplishment in business law, and she is the only Arizona attorney to ever receive this high honor. Also in 2019, Staudenmaier was inducted into the Maricopa County Bar Association Hall of Fame; named to the inaugural class of Arizona Capitol Times' Women Achievers of Arizona; honored as a Finalist for the Greater Phoenix Chamber of Commerce's ATHENA Awards; and recipient of the University of Iowa College of Law's 2019 Alumni Service Award.
