

Snell & Wilmer

News Release

SNELL & WILMER PARTNERS PATRICIA BRUM AND KEITH M. GREGORY SELECTED FOR INCLUSION IN LOS ANGELES TIMES B2B 2022 DIVERSITY, EQUITY, INCLUSION, AND ACCESSIBILITY MAGAZINE

LOS ANGELES (December 21, 2022) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that partners Patricia Brum and Keith M. Gregory have been selected for inclusion in Los Angeles Times B2B Publishing 2022 Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, and Accessibility: Trends, Updates, and Visionaries Magazine. According to the publication, this list recognizes those who exhibit achievements both within their organizations and in the community at large through actionable programs and initiatives impacting Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, and Accessibility.

Brum, a Brazilian native, is a business litigator with extensive experience in representing companies (both large and small) in cross-border disputes and consumer class action matters. She draws upon her diverse and multi-cultural background to strategically help clients. Brum is a strong advocate for the advancement of women attorneys in the legal profession and was recognized for her mentorship of women attorneys when she received Snell & Wilmer's Mentor Award in 2021. She is also a prominent leader in her community. Through her work in several non-profit organizations, Brum advocates for LGBTQ+ rights and art education for children in underserved communities. She received her J.D. from Southwestern Law School, her M.B.A. from University of Southern California and her B.A. from University of Brasilia.

Patricia Brum

Gregory serves as chair of the commercial litigation group in Los Angeles and co-chair of the commercial litigation group in California. He practices in the areas of general business matters; corporate, franchise, and partnership disputes; and intellectual property and commercial litigation. Gregory is an experienced litigator, with considerable background in litigating government debarment proceedings, intellectual property issues, licensing agreements, trade secret matters, and Uniform Commercial Code issues, especially within the electronic components, computer hardware and semi-conductor industries. He is co-chair of Snell & Wilmer's First-Gen Forward program, a program that endeavors to provide our first-generation attorneys, some of whom may include people who are the first in their families to achieve a college degree or who come from a low-income or working-class background, with additional resources and programming to allow them to achieve professional growth and success at the firm. Gregory received his J.D. from University of San Diego School of Law and his B.A. from University of California, Los Angeles.

Keith M. Gregory

About Snell & Wilmer

Founded in 1938, Snell & Wilmer is a full-service business law firm with more than 450 attorneys practicing in 16 locations throughout the United States and in Mexico, including Los Angeles, Orange County, and San Diego, California; Phoenix and Tucson, Arizona; Denver, Colorado; Washington, D.C.; Boise, Idaho; Las Vegas and Reno, Nevada; Albuquerque, New Mexico; Portland, Oregon; Dallas, Texas; Salt Lake City, Utah; Seattle, Washington; and Los Cabos, Mexico. The firm represents clients ranging from large, publicly traded corporations to small businesses, individuals, and entrepreneurs. For more information, visit swlaw.com.

###